Hon'ble B.C. Kandpal, J.

This special leave to appeal has been filed by the appellant – Smt. Sarita Agarwal against the judgment and order dated 30.04.2007 passed by Special Judicial Magistrate 1st, Dehradun thereby acquitted the respondents No. 2 and 3 from the charges under Sections 323, 354, 506 of I.P.C.

Brief facts to the case are that on 08.08.2000, the appellant lodged the First Information Report against the respondents No. 2 and 3 under Sections 323, 504, 506 and 354 I.P.C. The Special Judicial Magistrate First Dehradun acquitted the respondents No. 2 and 3 from all the charges leveled against them vide judgment and order dated 30.04.2007.

Feeling aggrieved by the said judgment and order, the complainant/appellant preferred this appeal before this Court.

Heard Sri Ganesh Kanpal holding brief of Sri B.D. Upadhayay, learned counsel for the appellant, Ms. Prabyha Noliyal, learned counsel for the respondents No. 2 and 3 and perused the record.

Having considered the arguments advanced by learned counsel for the parties and perusing the entire material available before me, I do not find any illegality, infirmity or incorrectness in the impugned judgment and order passed by the court below. I am in total agreement with the view taken by the court below. The impugned judgment and order does not required any interference. The special leave to appeal devoid of any force and is liable to be dismissed.

Accordingly, the special leave to appeal is dismissed.

Consequently, the criminal appeal No. 203 of 2007 is also dismissed.
